

EXPORT-IMPORT BANK of the UNITED STATES

Ex-Im Bank helps U.S. companies to sustain and create jobs by financing U.S. exports.

BRUCE R. HUNT

VICE PRESIDENT, SHORT-TERM TRADE FINANCE

As vice president of the Short-Term Trade Finance Division, Bruce Hunt is responsible for Ex-Im Bank's short-term insurance products for exporters, including single and multi-buyer policies. The Division also has business initiative responsibilities with a focus on small business and new products. This includes implementation of the Ex-Im Bank Online business automation project.

Before assuming his current position, Hunt was vice president of the Business Initiatives Division, where he developed and implemented insurance and guarantee products in response to the changing needs of Ex-Im Bank's clients. This included the Ex-Im Bank Online project. Previously Hunt served on the staff of the senior vice president of the Bank's Export Finance group.

Hunt joined Ex-Im Bank in 1975 as a loan officer in the Insurance Division, became a senior loan officer in 1981, and deputy vice president in 1988. He served as director, underwriting management and insurance operations, before joining the Export Finance group in October 2002.

Hunt holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration from Rutgers University. He resides in Springfield, Virginia.
